WHAT HIRING MANAGERS SAY

Wary of recruitment agencies? We get it.

So we'll let the people who hire with us do the talking. Three hiring managers, in their own words.

ON AGENCIES

I typically refrain from working with agencies as they often provide little value and harass you constantly (sound familiar?) - in Jordan's case this is certainly not true. He has intricate working knowledge of all the top candidates on the market, what they're working on and what motivates them...

Michael Brown

Director, Partner Development

ON THE BRIEF

“

Jordan isn't your typical recruiter. He's a strategic partner who actually understands technical hiring and the realities of high-growth delivery. When I'm hiring, he doesn't just send CVs. He identifies the exact culture fit and technical caliber needed to move the needle.

Samuel Dare

Founder and hiring manager

ON THE PROCESS

As a hiring manager he puts the work in to understand your team needs and find the best talent for the job. He consistently delivers results, is first class at keeping you informed and always pushes to get the best deal for everyone.

Martin Hansen
Founder

WHAT THEY'RE DESCRIBING

What a specialist partner should do.

01 Know the market

Who the strong candidates are and what motivates them

02 Understand the brief

Technical calibre and culture fit, not keyword matching

03 Keep you informed

No chasing, no CV spam
